

06:00 - 06:30pm

Welcome coffee

06:30 - 06:51pm

Opening session – perspectives on the Manifesto and its impact

From scientific consensus to action (Professor Samir Hamamah)

- Understanding the impetus behind the Manifesto: Why has fertility become a public health imperative?

The three Pillars of Change (Professor Rachel Lévy)

- Equitable access to fertility care
- Life-long education and prevention
- Research and therapeutic innovation

Six Months On: The Momentum in France (Professor Christine Decanter)

- Highlights of progress and public debate since October
- First political signals and areas of traction
- What's moving, and what's still to be achieved in the national roadmap

06:51 - 07:21pm

Keynote sessions – Policy Shifts Across Europe

Poland (Professor Iwona Szymusik)

- Public-funding of IVF
- Government decision-making: rationale, timeline and cost
- Key metrics: uptake, public perception, and early outcomes

Romania (Oussama Jebri – GM Merck Romania)

- Growing governmental commitment to fertility treatment coverage
- Insights from the National White Paper: policy recommendations and legislative perspectives

Fertility Europe (Irina Popova - Vice-Chairperson of Fertility Europe & Anita Fincham - Head of Advocacy)

- Perspectives from European patient groups on access, equity, and continuity of care
- Overview of the European initiatives

07:21 - 08:00pm

Roundtable: “Turning Advocacy into Policy: The Next Frontier”

With Pr. Decanter, Pr. Hamamah and Pr. Lévy, as well as representatives from Asso’SOPK, BAMP!, Fertility Europe, SOPK Europe & SOS Infertility, and moderated by Ms. Anne-Juliette Rohrbach

Objectives :

- 1.Map key remaining challenges: access inequalities, political inertia, budget constraints
- 2.Share good practices from the field: data-driven advocacy, physician-patient coalitions, effective societal narratives.
- 3.Identify three transferable action tracks to inspire progress across Member States by the end of 2025.

08:00 - 08:15 pm

Q&A session

08:15 - 8:30 pm

Closing remarks

08:30pm

Cocktail